

Localities Joining the Movement: sending resolutions to the General Assembly asking for a 36% cap on payday loans.

Abingdon

Albemarle

Alexandria

Amherst County

Appomattox County

Blacksburg

Bristol

Buckingham County

Carroll County

Charlottesville

Chesterfield County

Colonial Heights

Duffield

Emporia

Essex County

Farmville

Fluvanna County

Frederick County

Greene County

Hampton (asking for repeal of Payday Loan Act)

Harrisonburg

Henrico County (passed a resolution to repeal the payday loan act before the 2007 GA session)

Henry County

Fairfax County

King and Queen County

Lee County

Lexington

Louisa County

Luray

Lynchburg

Mathews County

Montross

Nelson County

Newport News (asking Repeal of Payday Loan Act or 36% cap)

Norfolk (asked for a 36% cap on all consumer loans)

Nottoway County

Pearisburg

Pocahontas

Pulaski

Quantico

Richmond

Roanoke

Roanoke County

Scott County

Shenandoah

South Boston

Stanley

Staunton

St. Paul (asked for 12% cap)

Warrenton

Washington County

Waynesboro

White Stone

Winchester

Wythe County

Wytheville

York County

Localities that have statements advocating for a 36% cap on Payday
Lending in their Legislative statements for the 2008 General Assembly
Session

Albemarle County

Alexandria

Arlington County

Chesapeake

Petersburg

Williamsburg

York

Localities whose Planning District Legislative Program for 2008 asks the General Assembly to cap payday lending at 36%

Albemarle County*

Greene County*

Louisa County*

Fluvanna Country*

Nelson County*

Charlottesville*

*Part of the Thomas Jefferson Planning District. All of these localities have already passed resolutions and are also represented in the list at the top of the page.

There are even more localities considering such resolutions across the state. Do you want to join the Movement?

If you are from a locality and would like more information about having your own resolution, please contact Dana Wiggins at (804)782-9430 or email at dana@vplc.org to request copies of sample resolutions or get more information on payday lending.